Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

Rev. M. A. Turner, Pastor
Sunday, Sept. 8th
Morning worship at 10.45.
Sunday school, 12.00.
No more Junior League services this month.
Epworth League at 6.30 o'clock.
Evening service at 7.30 o'clock.
Mid-week prayer meeting will be on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.
Choir rehearsal Friday evening at 7.30 in the church.
Subject last Sunday, "The Riches in the Deep," St. Luke 8:44. Was most impressively presented, proving the well known truth that real riches are costly.
Rev. Warner gave the evening sermon to a union audience. Just a glance over the audience was enough to convince any observer how well he presented the truth.

REGISTER ON SEPT. 12TH

See that others of the proper age register. This is a part of your patriotic duty. Every man between 18 and 45, both inclusive, who has not already registered must come forward and show his willingness to help overthrow the common enemy.

Final Sacred Band Concert.

Sunday afternoon at three o'clock the Barton band will give its final outdoor concert of the season. This will be the third Sunday concert and Saturday evening's concert will be the 13th in this series making 16 free outdoor concerts given by the band this season. That these events are enjoyed is evidenced by the fact that the attendance was never larger than this season and comment is to the effect that the music rendered was never better.

At the Sunday sacred concert Rev. L. A. Edwards of Newport will give a short address. H. G. Perley will sing a solo and it is planned to have the singers of this section seated where they will be able to lead the audience in singing a few of the most familiar sacred and patriotic songs.

Sunday afternoon's concert promises to be the best of all the splendid concerts given this season and while the restricted automobile traffic will undoubtedly keep many at home who would otherwise attend, the management thought it best to go ahead with the event since it was planned before the Sunday ruling was made and depend largely upon townspeople and those who can come by team for an audience.

Troy, Dan P. Bowen, G. H. Buzzell. Westfield, G. W. Miller, George Wright.

Westmore, G. L. Nutting.

The regular meeting of Crystal Lake Grange will be held Friday evening. Roll call is to be answered by an item of interest read in the past week. A surprise feature is in charge of the committee.

Weather conditions for the past 10 days have been about ideal and crop harvesting of all kinds has been in full swing. Some crops which a few weeks ago seemed backward, are coming on apace and promise a splendid yield.

It is requested by the government that all magazines mailed by the public at the one cent postage rate, be current numbers. Weekly publications must not be more than three weeks old and monthly publications not more than two months old.

Mrs. Archie L. Walden of North Attleboro is visiting at C. A. Barrows'. Mr. Walden will be remembered as one of Barton's star baseball players, having been here for two seasons, and is now a sergeant in the 302d infantry machine gun company.

H. P. Cook, who has been employed in the C. P. Jenness store for several years, has finished work there and will soon go to Orleans, where he has employment with the E. L. Chandler company. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will make their home with their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Doe.

MODIFIED WHEAT SAVING

Effects Householders, Wholesalers, Retailers, and Bakers.

Montpelier, Vt.—Federal Food Administrator Frank H. Brooks today made the announcement that beginning September 1 new wheat conservation rules for householders, wholesalers, retailers, bakers and millers would go into effect throughout Vermont and the rest of the nation. While it is necessary that conservation of wheat flour be maintained for the coming year throughout the Allied world, nevertheless the necessity for such stringent conservation as has been practised since last January does not now exist and the new regulations are a modification of the rules promulgated at the first of the year.

It has been agreed that the wheat bread of the allies shall contain 20 per cent other grains than wheat and the food administration holds that "it is only just that we should bear our share in this saving and our bread should be at least universal with those who are suffering more greatly from the war than ourselves." Here in the United States the main reliance will be on the voluntary action of the American homes to enforce the new mixture.

The new regulations supercede the famous 50-50 rule. The retailer selling standard wheat flour is required to carry in stock either barley flour, corn meal or corn flour, and with every sale of wheat flour must sell a combination of some one of these in the proportion of one pound of substitutes to each four pounds of wheat flour. In other words, instead of the substitution being pound for pound, it is now one pound of substitute for every four pounds of flour.

No dealer may force any other substitutes in combination upon the consumer and these substitutes must conform to the standards fixed by the United States Food Administration. There are some localities where other substitutes are available and which retailers may wish to carry. In order to meet this situation the following flour may also be sold in such combination in lieu of the above flours if the consumer so demands:

At the rate of one pound to each

Schools Open.

Schools opened Tuesday morning with a very large attendance. The junior-senior high school has registered 140 and more are known to be coming. The freshman class numbers 39.

Owing to the drafting of Mr. Updegraff, the man engaged for assistant principal, rearrangements had to be made at the last and it is probable that no assistant can be had as the schools of the state are nearly 200 teachers short, many high schools being in the same or worse condition for instructors than Barton.

The first grade contains 27 pupils and most of the grades are large. With the exception of Mr. Updegraff, the teaching force as heretofore named is installed.

It seems good to see the students and teachers on the streets again.

Congregational Church Notes.

Rev. W. A. Warner, Pastor.

Sunday, Sept. 8th

10.45, Morning service.

12.00, Sunday school.

6.30, Christian Endeavor meeting. Subject, "Training Conscience and Trained by Conscience." Prov. 20:27; Ps. 51:1-13.

Thursday evening meeting at 7.30

Rev. L. A. Edwards of Newport will preach both morning and evening in exchange with Rev. W. A. Warner.

Is Your Name on the Check List?

The board of civil authority for the town of Barton will meet at the town clerk's office Saturday at 7.30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of putting names on the check list to be used at the primaries Sept. 10. This is your last chance to get your name on the check list before the primaries.

four pounds of wheat flour, that is, Kaffir flour, Milo flour, Feterita flour and meals, Rye flour, Oat flour, Peanut flour, Bean flour, Potato flour, Sweet Potato flour, and Buckwheat flour.

Pure rye flour or meal may be sold as a substitute but must be sold in proportion of at least two pounds of rye with three pounds wheat flour.

It will be seen that this makes a new list of legal substitutes and that some of the substitutes formerly allowed are no longer permissible. Some of these are oatmeal, rolled oats, etc. It is hoped by the food administration that flours already mixed with the substitutes will soon be manufactured and on the market commercially so that it will not be necessary for the consumer to purchase his wheat flour and substitutes separately. All such combinations should be labelled "Victory Mixed Flour" and are to be labelled with the ingredients in order of their proportion. The millers are being furnished the exact proportions of flour and substitutes which they must use in the manufacture of Victory Mixed Flour.

The Victory mixed flours may be sold without substituting, but at no greater price from the miller, wholesaler or retailer dealer than in the case of standard wheat flour. Where the Victory mixed flour is not sold, it is required of the retailers that at the same time straight wheat flour is sold 20 per cent of legal substitute flours must be sold coincidentally. These same general rules apply also to all custom and exchange transactions as well as sales to farmers unless modified by special announcement of the federal food administration of the state where the mills are located.

Revision of previous general rules is authorized as follows, going into effect September 1:

"The previous rules limiting licensees, millers, wholesalers, retailers and bakers to thirty days' supply of flour will be changed to permit a sixty days' supply."

"The rules limiting sales by retailers of wheat flour to an eighth of a barrel in cities and a quarter of a barrel in sparsely settled districts are rescinded."

"The rule limiting the sale of flour by millers to wholesalers or wholesalers to retailers in combination with substitutes or certificates therefore, and the rule restricting the sale to seventy per cent previous sales are rescinded."

"Manufacturers of alimentary pastes and wheat breakfast foods are limited to their normal consumption wheat or wheat flour with understanding that they are not to unduly expand their ordinary consumption of wheat."

"Rules prohibiting the starting of new plants ready for operation prior to July 1, 1918, are rescinded."

"Where millers sell directly to consumers, they shall obey the same regulations as retail dealers."

Montpelier, Sept. 1.—Under the new wheat conservation rules, which are a modification of previous regulations, alterations in the rules and regulations governing the baking trade were announced today by Federal Food Administrator Frank H. Brooks, to become effective September 1, as follows:

Rule limiting bakers to 30 days' supply of flour changed so as to permit a 60 days' supply.

Rule 1-A limiting bakers to a wheat flour consumption not to exceed 70 per cent of the 1917 consumption, is

MORE COUNTY MEN LEAVE

Ten to Go to Devens and Eleven to Yaphank for Limited Service.

Two more contingents of Orleans county men leave for military service this week, ten going for regular military service to Camp Devens and eleven to Camp Yaphank for what is known as limited military service.

The men called by the exemption board include registrants from every section of the county.

List of men sent to Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., Sept. 4:

Clayton H. Wilson, Barton. Percy D. Lahue, North Troy. Burton L. Martin, North Troy.

Oster J. Urie, West Glover. Leon C. Cheney, Box 374 Derby Line. Perley L. Wells, Irasburg, R. D.

Herbert J. Bickford, North Troy. Elvin H. Colburn, E. Charleston. Earl J. Westover, North Troy.

Preston M. Degreenia, Barton. List of men sent to Camp Upton, Yaphank, September 5, all of which are limited service men:

Elwood F. Rash, Barton. Harry E. Edwards, Orleans. Leon C. Wilson, N. Rochester, N. H.

William J. Miller, West Glover. Celer G. Gochie, Greensboro Bend. Heyland E. Sherlaw, Lyndonville.

Carl E. Jessen, Derby, R. F. D. 1. James E. Spaulding, W. Charleston. Carlton W. Stratton, Craftsbury.

George A. Mertz, Rock Island, Que. Arthur W. Hildreth, Lyndonville.

rescinded. Wheat flour substitutes for bakers remain as heretofore with the exception of rye which will be a substitute when used upon a basis of not less than 40 per cent, which is two pounds rye flour to every three pounds standard wheat flour. When rye is used in this proportion or a greater proportion, no other substitutes are required. Less than this proportion of rye flour is used, the difference between such amount used and 40 per cent must be made up of other substitutes.

Bakers will be required to use one pound of substitutes to each four pounds of wheat flour in all bakery products including bread, except class 3-A, crackers, in which only 1 per cent substitutes other than rye are required.

All bakery products containing the above proportions of substitutes may have applied to them the name "Victory."

"Brown or Reiden."

Mr. Editor: If I could be allowed space, I would like to consider the article of above title, in your last issue. Mr. Locke, in this article says, "In consequence of an understanding in Barton, the south end of the town has furnished the representative two-thirds of the time and the north end one-third." (I suppose when he says "south end" he means Barton village, and "north end," Orleans village). I think it is true, that for the past 36 years, the two villages have appropriated the office of town representative, the balance of the town not having had a representative during that time. It is evident that this is not right, as there are men well qualified for the office, outside the villages. At the coming election Orleans village has no right to the office, as against the rest of the town; no village or section should claim the office, because it is its TURN. It is a question of who is more qualified, who can fill the office best.

Mr. Locke also says: That Mr. Reiden desired a reelection "but distinctly stated in substance that he would not enter the race against an Orleans candidate." This statement is error.

Mr. Reiden has been urged by many prominent men from all parts of the state, to become a candidate for speaker. For this reason, Mr. Reiden, and some of his friends, on August 3 went to Orleans and had a conference with Mr. Brown and many of the prominent citizens of Orleans, to see if it could be arranged so Mr. Reiden could be the Republican candidate from Barton without opposition. All seemed agreeable to this if Mr. Brown would consent. The question was left to Mr. Brown. At that time Mr. Brown declined to decide, saying he wished further time to consider the matter or that in substance, August 5th, I had an interview with Mr. Brown in the interest of Mr. Reiden and urged him to consent that Mr. Reiden be the candidate, so he could try for the speakership. Mr. Brown said he had not decided what he should do, but would write me when he had determined. On August 12th I received a letter from Mr. Brown saying "he had assurance of strong support from Orleans voters," and had decided to become a candidate. Mr. Reiden tells me he has never given assurances to any one that he would not enter the race against an Orleans candidate, and in my interview with Mr. Brown, he did not claim anything of the kind.

In regard to Mr. Dana, as a candidate for speaker, I very much doubt if he is again elected representative, as he has already held the office twice
